

NOTICE

CLARIFICATION REGARDING WITHDRAWAL FROM ACCOUNT UP TO Rs.1.00lakh as per latest directives received from Reserve Bank of India.

In this connection please note that, Rs.1.00 lakh upper limit for withdrawals includes on hardship grounds as also withdrawals made under earlier Directives.

All other terms and conditions remains the same as per earlier communication.

For instance, if a depositor has already withdrawn Rs.50,000/- as per earlier permissible limits and another Rs.50,000/- under hardship grounds (education/marriage/livelihood/medical), then in such a case the depositor cannot withdraw any more amount except under serious ailments for medical grounds for which the prescribed limit is Rs. 5.00 lakh. Also, Rs. 5.00 lakh limit for treatment of critical/life threatening ailments is inclusive of all withdrawals made since imposition of AID. i.e. in no case, overall withdrawals per depositor should exceed Rs.5 lakh."

