

NOTICE

Enhancement of Withdrawal under Hardship for Critical Life-threatening Ailments.

As per the RBI guidelines, the Bank has been sanctioning specific amount under various categories of Hardships such as Education, Marriage, Medical and Senior Citizen Livelihood.

We have been sanctioning upto Rs. 50,000/- for Education, Marriage and Senior Citizen Livelihood and upto Rs. 1,00,000/- for Medical Expenses.

Now RBI has enhanced the maximum withdrawal limit for Medical Expenses to Rs. 5,00,000/- for critical life-threatening ailments such as cancer, and other ailments concerning heart, kidney, liver generally requiring surgical interventions, subject to the following conditions:

- a) Requests for withdrawals on the grounds of critical life-threatening ailments only on the basis of certificates/ estimates / bills / invoices from a hospital of repute preferably Government / Trust / Corporate hospitals.
- b) Payment will be made directly to the hospital.
- c) Payment will be allowed after due examination of the veracity of such applications by the screening committee on a case-to-case basis.

Other terms and conditions as mentioned on the Bank's website [www.pmcbank.com] with regards to withdrawals under hardship ground including limits for withdrawal on various other grounds of hardship remain the same.